THE REAL WORLD OF BRIDGERTON
TRUE STORIES OF REGENCY HIGH SOCIETY
CATHERINE CURZON
Discover the true Regency history behind the TV phenomenon.
In The Real World of Bridgerton, author and Regency period expert Catherine Curzon explores the historical inspirations behind the hit series, and illuminates the fascinating details of real life in regency high society. Examining a range of key topics, this revealing guide covers everything from the class structure of the era and the crucial role played by marriage to the stunning fashion and cultural and social events of the time that have enchanted audiences and history fanatics for centuries. With further chapters dedicated to sex, health, the media and more, this is a window into the real history that has helped make Bridgerton such a global phenomenon. Offering insightful advice on what – and what not – to wear, how to see and be seen, the reality of ‘coming out’ into the public arena, and decoding the real-life scandal sheets from which the TV show has drawn, The Real World of Bridgerton explores the lives and loves of the real ladies and gentlemen of Regency England.

THE LAST OVERLAND
SINGAPORE TO LONDON: THE RETURN JOURNEY OF THE ICONIC LAND ROVER EXPEDITION (WITH A FOREWORD BY TIM SLESSOR)
ALEX BESCoby
The remarkable story of filmmaker and historian Alex Bescoby’s journey to recreate the iconic First Overland expedition made in 1956 in the original ‘Oxford’ Land Rover. Also a major documentary series on All 4.
Inspired by the remarkable First Overland expedition undertaken in the 1950s by Tim Slessor and five friends, and commissioned for TV by a young David Attenborough, Alex makes contact with now eighty-six-year-old Tim and together they plan an epic recreation of the original trip, this time travelling the reverse journey from Singapore to London. In awe of the unstoppable Tim and haunted by his own grandfather’s declining health, Alex and his team soon find themselves on a life-defining journey of their own.

THE WORLD OF ALL CREATURES GREAT & SMALL
WELCOME TO SKELDALE HOUSE [WITH A FOREWORD BY JIM WIGHT]
Revised to tie-in with the third series of the hit TV remake of this much-loved classic, come behind the scenes with exclusive interviews and full colour photography.
Welcome to the wonderful world of Skeldale House, the veterinary surgery for the locals of Barrowby village and their animals. In this exclusive behind-the-scenes book, go through the doors of the famous 1930s practice and discover the real-life inspirations for the remake of All Creatures Great & Small. With exclusive insights into the making of the series, and paying homage to James Herriot and his classic books, this is the ultimate celebration of a cast of characters – human and animals – who have been bringing us joy for over fifty years.

HURRICANE
THE PLANE THAT WON THE WAR
JACKY HYAMS
ISBN: 9781789294880
£19.99
Hardback • World
Publication date: 25/05/23
Britain’s first-ever wartime fighter plane, the Hawker Hurricane shot down more enemy planes than any other fighter. It was the true aviation hero of the Battle of Britain.
The Hurricane was the warhorse of British aviation history. Often eclipsed by the legend and aerial herculean of the Spitfire, the ‘Hurri’ was more stable, less expensive to build and far easier to repair and maintain than the ‘Spit’. During the Battle of Britain in 1940, the Hurricane outnumbered the Spitfire three to one and was the dominant British fighter plane. It proved to be Britain and her allies’ most fearsome fighter plane in aerial combat, becoming a legend of World War II aviation.
